THURSDAY, OCTOBER 29, 1767.

To the Inhabitants of the Town of BOSTON.

GENTLEMEN,

THE preſent State of the Britiſh Dominions in America, and particularly of this Province, calls aloud for our moſt ſerious Attention. We are each of us deeply intereſted in the Events of the preſent important Period; and ſince we are embarked in one Common Cauſe, let us baniſh all Diſcord from amongſt ourſelves. It is with Pain that I remark the Decreaſe of mutual Confidence and Harmony amongſt the Inhabitants of this Metropolis: Men, who were a few Months paſt connected together by the pleaſing Ties of Love and Friendſhip, are now totally eſtranged from each other. Our unhappy Situation has led us perhaps ſometimes to ſuſpect the Innocent, only becauſe they happen to ſome Circumſtances to differ from us in their Sentiments. Our Opinions may in ſome Senſe be ſaid to be Part of our Conſtitution. Thoſe who have a natural Firmneſs and Intrepidity will take a ſhorter and more daring Method to accompliſh their Purpoſes; and from their ſanguine Temperament, will unavoidably adopt ſuch Meaſures as cannot obtain the Approbation of thoſe who are habitually timid and irreſolute: But nevertheleſs both may be true Friends to their Country, and both may, tho' by different Means, be ſtriving to bring about the ſame laudable Deſigns. This Contrariety, if we could ſometimes diveſt ourſelves of thoſe Prejudices (which to ſpeak plainly, are moſt predominant in narrow Minds) might be made productive of a moſt happy Medium. Let me therefore recommend it to you, my fellow Citizens, to convene ourſelves together, and diſpaſſionately to conſult the Good of your Country; throw away Suſpicion, which when once indulged, will certainly be confirmed by Circumſtances in themſelves altogether trivial. Our Country has without doubt been greatly miſrepreſented to the Britiſh Miniſtry and Parliament. May thoſe who have done it, repent, reform, and obtain Forgiveneſs from God and Man.

Our Buſineſs is to take a View of our preſent Situation, and to apply the beſt Remedies to our diſordered State, which our united Prudence can ſuggeſt——We are at preſent engaged in a Trade with Great-Britain, which annually carries off, at the leaſt One Third more of Silver and Gold, than we are able by our utmoſt Efforts to bring into the Country, in the preſent circumſcribed State of our Commerce with other Places. The Britiſh Parliament we hear have thought fit further to burthen us with an additional Tax upon ſeveral Articles which we import from the Mother Country. Now it is plain, that the moſt tame Submiſſion to theſe Taxations can never anſwer the Ends propoſed by the Parliament, namely, to raiſe a Revenue from our Toil and Induſtry, to ſupport Officers independent of the People, in Affluence and Grandeur; for the Balance being ſo greatly againſt us, the Trade cannot poſſibly be of long continuance.—A conſtant draining of our Money, without a ſufficient Source of new Supplies, will inevitably bring us to a State of Bankruptcy: And I cannot but believe, that all knowing Men will, from this Conſideration, as well as from Humanity and Love of Juſtice, refuſe Appointments upon this Eſtabliſhment: Nay further, I am encouraged to hope they will faithfully repreſent to their Friends in G. B. the certain pernicious Conſequences of ſuch Meaſures. Sure I am, that they will act unwiſely in not ſeizing this Opportunity of doing ſuch important Service to the Mother Country, and of endearing themſelves to the diſtreſſed Inhabitants of theſe Colonies.

I cannot avoid taking Notice at this Time of the declining State, even of thoſe few Branches of Buſineſs in which our Labourers were ſome Years paſt employed; particularly the Ship-building Buſineſs has been greatly injured of late, by the imprudent Importation of Lumber; this Town feels the ill Conſequences of this Folly. Hundreds who were uſefully employed, are now deprived of the Means of obtaining a Support by honeſt Induſtry, and are therefore expoſed to thoſe Vices, which are the common Attendants of Idleneſs and Want.—The Importation of Engliſh Refined Sugar has likewiſe greatly diſcouraged the manufacturing of Sugar in this Country.—I might inſtance in ſeveral other Kinds of Manufactures, which we have unwiſely forced out of our own Hands; and though there may be ſome temporary Advantages to private Perſons concerned in theſe ruinous Exportations and Superfluous Importations, yet as we live one by another, we muſt all ſoon feel the Miſfortunes that muſt end a general Decay of Buſineſs, and Declenſion of Induſtry. I would therefore modeſtly adviſe, that we immediately come into a Determination to uſe as few foreign Manufactures as poſſible; and that we encourage, by every Means, the manufacturing thoſe Articles, on the Importation of which heavy Taxes are laid.—And I would have this done, not from a Deſire of revenging the Injury done us, by the laying on of thoſe burthenſome Duties, but from a full Conviction of the Neceſſity of ſuch a Procedure.

Permit me to point out ſeveral Branches of Buſineſs which I think you may immediately engage in, which will be advantageous to the Undertakers, and alſo a Means of employing ſome of your induſtrious Poor, who had much rather be put into a Capacity of earning a Subſiſtence, than receive it from your Bounty.

Particularly the manufacturing of Glaſs; the Proceſs is eaſily underſtood, and we have all the Materials within ourſelves. A Glaſs-Houſe erected in this Town would be nearly paid for by the Value which would be given for the broken Glaſs, which now is thrown about, as a Nuiſance to the Town. Many Kinds of Hard-ware may be as good, and if a large Quantity was required, would be as cheap as can be imported from Great-Britain.—Large Quantities of Cordage may be made, and as Hemp of our own Growth is annually increaſing, an Encouragement may be given to the manufacturing of Duck and other Hempen Cloth. Painters Oils and Colours may alſo be prepared amongſt us in Quantities ſufficient, and probably in a ſhort Time much cheaper than can be imported. To be brief, every Day would, if we were once in Earneſt, furniſh new Fields for Induſtry, which is the true Baſis of public Affluence and Felicity, and the Nurſe of Freedom. If the above Hints are regarded, and the Meaſures pointed out, vigorouſly reſolved upon, I will venture to foretel that Great-Britain will ſoon be convinced that Americans were not made to be her Slaves.

Your's,

CONCILIATOR.

LEGHORN, June 18.

THE Crew of a Malteſe Tartan are juſt arrived here, who had fled and abandoned their Veſſel, which was chaſed by a Barbary Galliot, and taken. We learn that a Barbary Corſair hath alſo taken a Neapolitan Felucca, laden with Merchandiſe for this Port.

CADIZ, July 3. According to Advices from Tetuan, Don George Juan, Ambaſſador from Spain to the Emperor of Morocco, hath preſented to that Prince, beſides ſuperb Tents, rich Silks, and valuable Jewels, a Sum of about 300,000 Piaſtres; and the Accommodation between the Two Powers is a perpetual Peace. Theſe Letters add, that the Count de Breugnon, Ambaſſador from France to the ſame Mooriſh Prince, hath preſented to him, beſides ſeveral Curioſities, of the Value of 400,000 Livres, the Sum of 300,000 Piaſtres, as a Ranſom for the French Slaves; and that the Treaty ſigned, is not ſtiled a formal Peace, but a Truce for Twenty Years. Some French Merchants, however, ſay, that it is a formal Peace.

STOCKHOLM, July 17. The Baron d'Unruhe, Deputy of the Confederacy of Diſſidents in Poland, had, on the 12th Inſtant, at Drotningholm, a private Audience of the King, to whom he preſented a Letter written by the Confederates to his Majeſty, wherein, after rendering him moſt humble Thanks for having employed his good Offices for re-obtaining them the Enjoyment of their Rights, they implore the Continuation of his Kindneſs to them.

WARSAW, July 18. We have juſt learnt, that the Opening of the Dyetines both in Lithuania and Poland, will take Place the 24th of next Auguſt, and that the General Dyetine of Pruſſia-Royal is fixed for the 7th of September following.

RATISBON, July 21. On the 10th Inſtant, a terrible Storm happened at Geiſenfeld, accompanied with Hail, which in a ſhort Time deſtroyed all the Fruits of the Earth, unroofed ſeveral Houſes, and blew down upwards of a 1000 Trees. A Storm of the ſame Kind happened in the ſame Village Three Years ago. It is feared that the Harveſt is every where in a Manner deſtroyed, and the Effects of this Storm were felt above Two Leagues round.

POITIERS, July 27. In the Night between the 18th and 19th Inſtant, a Fire broke out in a Wooden Houſe near the Church of Notre Dame, and made ſo rapid a Progreſs, that both that and the Houſe adjoining, which was of Wood likewiſe, were in Flames, before the Accident was known. The Fire caught the Tower of the Church, altho' ſeparated by a very wide Street. Several Houſes were pulled down to prevent the Flames from ſpreading. Nine Deaths have been occaſioned by this Accident. A Lockſmith, his Mother-in-Law, and a Child, were burnt in their Beds; the Wife, who was juſt recovered from an Illneſs, eſcaped the Flames, but died of the Fright Two Hours after. Another Woman, who was returning back to ſave her Child, periſhed with it. A Girl, who was in Bed on the Third Story, ſeeing the Fire both above and below her, threw herſelf out of the Window into the Street, and was killed. A Saddler, who went into his Room to ſave ſome of his Effects, was cruſhed to Death by the falling of a Beam, together with a Shoemaker's Apprentice, who was giving him Aſſiſtance. Two more Perſons were hurt, and the Loſs of Goods is about 60,000 Livres.

BOIS-LE-DUC, July 27. The Advices received of the Damages done by the late dreadful Storm of the 20th, which fell upon this Town, and its Environs, are moſt deplorable. Nineteen Villages have ſuffered by the Hail, which has damaged the Houſes, and broke the Windows to Pieces. They count at Roſmalen no leſs than 500 Oak Trees torn up by the Roots by the Impetuoſity of the Wind; and between 70 and 80 Houſes and Barns carried away, or partly deſtroyed, as alſo the Reformed and Catholic Churches. Letters from the Lordſhip of Empel and Meerwyk bring, that the Proteſtant Church and School there, are ſtripped of their Roofs, that the Roman Catholic Churches, and 18 Houſes, are converted into Heaps of Ruins; that the Village of Hartwicke had undergone the ſame Fate, and that all the Damages put together, amounted to an immenſe Sum.

GENOA, July 27. This Morning arrived here a Spaniſh Man of War of 70 Guns, from Calvi. By the laſt Letters from Corſica, we hear, that the French Troops having evacuated Algaiola, and retired to Calvi, the Corſican Malecontents took immediate Poſſeſſion of it, and ſent all the Jeſuits that had been landed there, to Calvi.

PARIS, July 27. The King has conferred the Honours of his Chamber on the Duke of York, and that Prince ſupped, on the 23d, with his Majeſty.

BERLIN, July 28. Laſt Saturday in the Evening, the Marriage of the Princeſs Louiſa-Henrietta Wilhelmina, of Brandenbourg, with the reigning Prince of Anhalt Deſſau, was ſolemniſed in the Royal Chapel at Charlottenbourg, by the Reverend Mr. Sack, Firſt Chaplain to the King of Pruſſia; at which Ceremony his Majeſty, and the reſt of the Royal Family, the foreign Miniſters, and the Nobility, aſſiſted.

Yeſterday, in the Evening, the Ceremony of betrothing and exchanging of Rings between her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Wilhelmina, of Pruſſia, and his Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange, was performed at Charlottenbourg, in the Preſence of his Pruſſian Majeſty, and the reſt of the Royal Family, &c. After which the French Play, called Turcaret, was acted in the Orangerie: The Gardens on this Occaſion were illuminated, there was a grand Supper, and a Ball, which laſted till this Morning, when the King of Pruſſia returned to Potzdam.

PARIS, July 29. The Abbe de la Chapelle, Cenſor Royal, and Member of the Royal Society of London, invented, ſometime ago, a Sort of Cork Waiſtcoat, which he named Scaphandre, by Means whereof any Perſon can keep himſelf above Water, not only without Fear of ſinking, but alſo preſerve a perfect Equilibrium, and the free Uſe of his Hands. He had already exhibited ſeveral public Proofs of this Machine, and repeated them the 17th Inſtant, in the Middle of the Seine, between the Port à l'Anglois and the Quarries. He threw himſelf into the Water quite dreſſed, with his Waiſtcoat, and was ſeen for more than an Hour in all Sorts of Poſitions, as eating, drinking, charging and diſcharging a Piſtol, reading, writing, &c. The Abbé de la Chapelle hath alſo invented a kind of Glove, made like the Foot of a Gooſe, by Means of which, he ſwims and advances in the Water in whatever Direction he pleaſes. His Scaphandre, which may be of great Utility on many Occaſions, differs in its Conſtruction from thoſe Cork Jackets, invented and uſed long ſince in France and England.

BERLIN, July 31. We hear from Arneburg, a Town in the New Marche of Brandenburgh, that 130 Houſes have been burnt down by Fire, beſides the Church, and ſome public Buildings.

PARIS, Auguſt 1. Cardinal de Bernis, Archbiſhop of Alby, has acted in a Manner that does great Honour to his Compaſſion and Humanity. Finding Proviſions become very dear in his Dioceſe, he has diſcharged all his Domeſtics except Three; telling them, that he could no longer pay them Wages, as the Neceſſities of the Poor increaſed every Day, but at the ſame Time offering to maintain them, if they could not get into other Services, or find Employment. This good Biſhop feeds 200 Beggars every Day in his Court-Yard, excluſive of the Infirm, the Sick, and the bashful Poor, who are privately relieved by his Bounty, both in this Metropolis, and other Towns of his Dioceſe.

LONDON, July 21.

A certain pious Houſe in this City, has lately been detected in mixing, with other Ingredients, Copper inſtead of Gold. How long this has been practiſed is unknown; but it is preſumed it has ſubſiſted ſome Years, as both the Partners keep their Carriages and Country Houſes, and were eſteemed honeſt Men before this Diſcovery.

We hear from Liſbon, that it is generally ſuppoſed in Portugal, that the Prime Miniſter has ſold himſelf, and the Intereſts of his Country, to the French King.

July 25. A moſt extraordinary Affair, we hear, happened ſome Time ago in Dublin: A Surgeon's Son, with Four other young Fellows, being capitally convicted for a highway Robbery, and ordered for Execution, the Surgeon went the Evening before they were to ſuffer, to take Leave of his unfortunate Boy, and carried a Preparation in his Pocket, which he left with the Lad, to prevent the Infamy of a public Death; the Son took it after the Father's Departure, and it juſt began to operate as a Reprieve was brought for him and his Companions; he expired however in a ſhort Time, and the reſt were pardoned. The Father was ſo afflicted at the Circumſtance, that he died within a Fortnight, not without Suſpicion of having haſtened his End by ſome ſuch Potion as he had preſcribed for his Son.

By Letters from Peterſburgh, we are adviſed, that a Company of Merchants are aſſociated there, to Trade directly to Hamburgh, and are now fitting out Three Ships for that Purpoſe. Time will ſhew the Advantages of this new Branch of Commerce.

July 30. On Saturday laſt a Farmer near Thaxted, in Eſſex, aged 81 Years, was married to a young Woman in the Neighbourhood of 19, who juſt makes his Seventh Wife.

On Wedneſday Evening the new-invented Machine, for the Preſervation of Lives and Goods in caſe of Fire, was exhibited at a Gentleman's Houſe near King James's Stairs, Shadwell, when Thirteen Perſons, and ſeveral Boxes and Trunks, were conveyed from a Two Pair of Stairs Window, in the Space of Six Minutes.

Auguſt 3. A magnificent Stomacher is ſaid to be making for the Queen, which when executed will be worth 50,000 Guineas.

As the taking of a Liſt of Papiſts in this Kingdom at preſent makes ſome Noiſe, it may be obſerved, that it hath been a Rule almoſt every Twenty Years ſmce the Revolution to do the ſame, ſo as to know if they increaſed or diminiſhed; and perhaps that may be the Caſe at preſent. Others ſay, that all Papiſts who pay 4l. Rent yearly, will be taxed in a ſmall Sum, to be collected with the Houſe and Window-Tax Duties

A poor Man (aged 105) without any known Sirname, but well remembered about Ware, in Hertfordſhire, which Place he uſed to traverſe, with a remarkable long Beard, ſelling Matches and Ballads, and playing ſome Tricks of Dexterity, or Slight of Hand, and uſed in his Patrol commonly to be ſaying, Poor Joe, all alone, by which Term he was well known. The Houſe where he died he had poſſeſſed ſome Years, ſheltering himſelf at Times there, though in common he lay about in Stables, Hay-Lofts, &c. and is reported not to have lain upon a Bed for more than Fifty Years paſt, notwithſtanding which, he died worth upwards of 3000l. which he has by Will left for the Benefit of Widows and Orphan Children, under Direction of certain Perſons named in his Will for that Purpoſe.

We hear that a Captain of a Ship, now in the River, was brought home in Irons, by order of a Governor abroad, for cauſing a Man to be whipped in ſuch a Manner as to occaſion his Death.

SCHEME
OF THE ## MARYLAND LIBERTY LOTTERY.

THE Lower Houſe of Aſſembly of Maryland have conſtantly and ineffectually hitherto, ſince Seventeen Hundred and Thirty-nine, RESOLVED, That his Lordſhip hath no Right to collect Twelve-pence per Hogſhead on Tobacco exported.

A Conſtitutional Tax on the People to ſupport an Agent of the Appointment of the Lower Houſe, has been greatly deſired, frequently attempted, and as often refuſed by the Upper Houſe.

The Lower Houſe of Aſſembly contend, That the Clerk of the Council his reaſonable Reward, as well as every other Expence neceſſarily attending the Execution of the Powers of Government, ought to be defrayed out of the Fines, Forfeitures, Amerciaments, and other Monies received by the Government for the Support thereof; and, "That Sentiment being directly oppoſite to the Opinion the Upper "Houſe had, on mature Conſideration, formed upon the "Subject of the Clerk of the Council's Claim," principally occaſioned the Non-payment of the Public Debt for upwards of Ten Years: The Diſtreſs of Trade for Want of a Circulating Medium, and the extreme Neceſſity of Public Creditors, compelled the Lower Houſe to agree to an Appeal to his Majeſty in Council, on the Subject Matter of Difference; without the Allotment of any Public Money for that Purpoſe; as the only Means to ſettle Diſputes, reſtore Public Credit, and lay a ſure Foundation for the future Eaſe and Good of the Province.

A Subſcription therefore, by RESOLVE of the Lower Houſe, has been Open'd, and Subſcriptions are taken in by every Member, for maintaining an Agent, and ſupporting the Appeal on the Part of the People, as well as obtaining Redreſs of their other Grievances; and, by RESOLVE alſo of the Lower Houſe, as an additional Means of raiſing Money for the ſame Purpoſes, the following SCHEME of a LOTTERY, by which to raiſe One Thouſand Pounds Common Money, is ſubmitted to the Public.
